

Record of discussions with the NPF since March 2016

Approximate length of discussions: 18 hours (over 25 months)

- March 2016: Following the creation of the NPF, conference-call with the co-presidents and Paul Dupuis. Requested a merge of the AMPMQ with the NPF, without offering representation (Approx. length 1 hour);
- Refusal to meet during the parliamentary committee hearings on Bill C-7;
- July 2017: Meeting of the AMPMQ and NPF representatives in Ottawa. Proposal by the AMPMQ for temporary consolidation (Approx. length 3 hours);
- November 2016: Preparatory call for the meeting in Montreal (Approx. length 1 hour);
- November 2016: Meeting of AMPMQ and FPN representatives in Montreal. Discussion on the unification of the associations and representation (Approx. length 4 hours);
- April 2017: Phone call from Serge Bilodeau to Brian Sauvé. After the NPF's application for accreditation, discussions on the events to come, representation and unification of the various associations (Approx. length 1 hour);
- May 2017: Conference-call between the AMPMQ and FPN representatives, accompanied by their respective lawyers (Approx. length 2 hours);
- May 2017: Phone call from Serge Bilodeau to Brian Sauvé. Discussions on the AMPMQ's requests for changes to the NPF's structure (Approx. length 1 hour);
- June 2017, April 2017: Phone call from Serge Bilodeau to Brian Sauvé. AMPMQ's request to the NPF to stop lobbying and support Bill C-7 (approximately 1 hour);
- June 2017: Phone call from Serge Bilodeau to Brian Sauvé. Discussions on the AMPMQ's compromise to break the deadlock (Approx. length 2 hours);
- October 2017: Mediation at the Commission between the AMPMQ and FPN representatives, accompanied by their respective lawyers and the Commission's mediators (In person, approx. length 2 hours);